ADVERTISING

Has created many a new business,
Has enlarged many an old business,
Has revived many a dull business,
Has rescued many a lost business,
Has saved many a failing business,
Has preserved many a large business,
And insures success in any business.

GIRARD'S SECRET.—Stephen Girard used to say in his old age: "I have always considered advertising liberally and long to be the great medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth. And I have made it an invariable rule to advertise in dull times as well as the busiest, long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out, as by continually keeping my business before the public it has secured many sales that I otherwise would have lost."

ADVERTISE YOUR BUSINESS.
KEEP YOUR NAME BEFORE THE PUBLIC.
JUDICIOUS ADVERTISING INSURES A FORTUNE.
IF BUSINESS IS DULL, ADVERTISE.
IF BUSINESS IS BRISK, ADVERTISE.

☞ The man who didn't believe in advertising has gone into partnership with the sheriff, and that official does the advertising. 1y10d3m

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

EASTERN DATES TO NOVEMBER 13.

EASTERN STATES.

Death of Col. Stevens.

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—Lieut. Colonel A. H. Stevens, Jr., formerly in command of the First Battalion of Massachusetts Cavalry, who was the first Union officer who entered Richmond and received its surrender from the Mayor, died at his residence in East Cambridge to-day.

List of Casualties.

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—Following are casualties by the fire, so far as known.

Killed—Lewis G. Thompson, Louis Porter Abbot, Frank Olmstead, Wm. Ferray, Daniel Cochran and five others, whose names are unknown.

Wounded—Thos Maloney, Col. Freeman, W. J. Wood, W. J Gardner, Francis Crosher, Chas Paine, Thos. Watkins, John Richardson, (Peter Dighom and A. O. Abbott.

Missing—Jame Burr, Geo. Smith, W. N. Trombly, John Dillon.

A. O. Abbott is believed to be fatally injured. He was to have been married on Thanksgiving Day. His brother Lewis, who was killed, leaves a wife and three children. Their mother, it is thought, will not survive the shock of the fate of her two sons.

Miscellaneous Items.

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—A large part of the military guard of the burnt district withdrew to-day.

The safe of West, Scott & Co., of High street, was recovered. Its contents ($150,000) were found uninjured, after six hours' exposure to intense heat. The locality was guarded by a detachment of dragoons.

E. J Hawley & Co., bankers, whose temporary suspension was announced, resumed business to-day.

One daily, fifteen weekly and eleven monthly papers, were burned out of their quarters by the fire, while almost every printing house in town suffered more or less.

The resolution adopted by the Relief Committee to accept contributions from other cities in aid of sufferers, will afford immediate relief to many poor families who lost their all, and to thousands thrown out of employment. The noble generosity exhibited throughout the country is calling forth thanksgiving from all grateful hearts.

Assessments to Pay Losses.

BANGOR, Me., Nov. 14.—The stockholders of the Eastern Insurance Company to-day subscribed a sufficient amount to pay all losses by the Boston fire and enable the company to continue business.

Full Returns in New Hampshire.

CONCORD, Nov. 14.—Full returns from the State give Grant a majority of 5,410.

WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—It is probable that Gen. Cooke, now commanding the Department of the Lakes, will soon be retired, being over 62 years old, and having been in the service forty-five years.

Aid to Boston.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—At a meeting of citizens to-night, a committee was appointed to collect funds in aid of the Boston sufferers.

Award to Great Britain.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The Mixed Commission on American and British claims, to-day awarded claims amounting to $590,000 in gold, to be paid by the United States to Great Britain, principally for the property of British subjects destroyed or seized by Union forces during the war.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The Department of State to-day received an official copy of the award made by the Emperor on the San Juan arbitration.

The horse disease shows no signs of abatement. Several cases of dropsy have occurred.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

From Berlin.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—Official journals continue to intimate that the Emperor will secure a majority in the Upper House of the Diet by appointing a sufficient number of Life Peers, if necessary, to carry the Reform Bill.

Storm in Germany.

HAMBURG, Nov. 14.—A severe rain and snow storm, accompanied by a heavy gale, has prevailed in this section of Germany for several days. The telegraph wires are prostrated in all directions. The country is flooded. At Lubec the Custom House and many warehouses are submerged.

From Paris.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—In the Assembly to-day, the bill for the reform of the Ministry was debated. A Deputy, taking occasion to remark in the course of his speech, that the Republic was permanently established, was instantly interrupted by exclamations from all sides. It was some time before the agitation in the Chamber subsided.

From London.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The Pencall coal mine in Staffordshire, suddenly ignited to-day, while the men were at work. Eleven miners were rescued, but twenty-two still remain in the mine, and there is little hope that they will be saved.

From Madrid.

MADRID, Nov. 14.—King Amadeus is confined to the Palace by illness.

Losses by the Boston Fire.

The Walla Walla Union says: "As Whitman and Yakima counties are sure to give Anders majorities that will far outweigh those for Mix in Walla Walla and Stevens counties, we may safely say that Mr. Anders will be the next Prosecuting Attorney for the Judicial District composed of the four counties named."

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO NOVEMBER 14.

EASTERN STATES.

Snow Storm.

BUFFALO, Nov. 15.—The first snow storm of the season set in here last night. The snow is four inches deep on a level, and trains on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad are blocked at Irving Station. All trains are behind time.

Will not Dismiss.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—District Attorney Garvin denies that the prosecution propose to enter a nolle prosequi in the case of Mayor Hall, already tried twice before the jury.

Silk Weavers' Strike.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The silk ribbon weavers in West Twenty-ninth street are on a strike, resisting the 35 per cent. reduction.

Cold Weather in the West.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Dispatches from various points in the West give accounts of extremely cold weather for this time of year, with considerable snow in some localities. At Springfield, Ill., six inches have fallen.

Destructive Fires.

LAWRENCE, Kansas, Nov. 15.—The furniture store of Bailey & Smith was burned last night. Loss $30,000.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.—A fire at Missouri Valley Junction yesterday, destroyed nearly the whole business portion of the city. Loss $35,000. No insurance.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—Dishon's extensive saw works were burned this morning. Loss, $8,000. The fire was caused by the explosion of an oil can. Three buildings were destroyed, valued with contents at $150,000. They were insured for $150,000. The buildings covered nearly all the square bounded by Front, Haydock, Carroll and Howell streets, and gave employment to 1,000 hands. Its business amounted to two million dollars a year.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 15.—The Journal buildings, printing material and presses, were burned this morning.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Condition of the Boston Banks.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Comptroller of Currency Knox has returned from Boston and reports that in the banks of that city there are $87,000,000, with a surplus of $20,000,000, and the losses are only a million and a half. He says the financial prospects, in view of these facts, are cheerful, and business is fast resuming its usual channels.

Pardoned.

A dispatch from Gen. Sickles, at Madrid, reports the pardon of Julius Kryzwaszynski, sometimes called Kryke, undergoing a sentence of ten years imprisonment for participating in Ryan's expedition from Caton to Punta Rosa, in 1871. Kryke is a Pole by birth, and was a citizen of the United States, and distinguished himself in the volunteer army during the rebellion. For his participation in an expedition against Cuba he was originally sentenced to death.

The Spanish Minister to-day at the instance of his Government called on the President and congratulated him on his re-election. The President was attended by Secretary Fish.

Philadelphia Postoffice.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—A delegation of thirty Pennsylvanians, headed by the Governor-elect, Senator Cameron and ex-Congressman O'Neill, had an interview to-day with the President in relation to the appointment of a Postmaster at Philadelphia. They urged George Freeman, a merchant of that city for the place. The President listened attentively, but gave no definite response. George Tavimao, a clerk in the office, is also a candidate. The question of appointment under the civil service regulation enters into the controversy. It is said the President is inclined to appoint the clerk, and the delegation are somewhat excited in consequence.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

From London.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Royal Geographical Society has sent a letter of thanks to James Gordon Bennett for the part he took in the discovery of Dr. Livingstone, and voted Stanley a Victoria medal of 183.

UTAH.

From Salt Lake City.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 15.—The Royal Arch Masons publish a call for an organization to-morrow night.

W. T. Robinson left for San Francisco to-day with samples of the so-called diamonds, for test by lapidaries. Opinion about these is divided. Some say it is a gross attempt to defraud; others think there is something in them.

The weather is intensely cold.

NEVADA.

ELKO, Nov. 15.—A serious shooting affray occurred last night at 8 o'clock. About 7:30 P. M., Sam Turner walked into Frank's saloon, and soon after entering, noticed a difficulty between a man named Crow and C. E. Reeves. The two parties came to blows. Turner, among others, interferred to separate them. He got hold of Reeves and tried to prevent him from fighting. Reeves pulled him outside the door, and immediately upon releasing him, pulled a pistol and fired two shots, when Sam drew his pistol and fired a shot. The ball struck Reeves in the right thigh, ranging downwards. The ball, after passing through, lodged in the left knee. The principal injury, however, was received by a stone mason named Jasper Gaff, who was endeavoring to escape from the vicinity of the shooting, but was struck by a stray shot, supposed to be from Reeves' pistol. Walter E. Price, better known as "Kansas," was struck in the left knee, the leg being quite badly shattered. Gaff was shot in the small of the back. The wound is considered mortal. Turner and Reeves were arrested.

The westward bound train is 4½ hours late.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—The formal opening of telegraphic communication between Australia and the balance of the civilized world, is made the occasion of exchange of good fellowship between the Mayors at Adelaide and San Francisco, as the following correspondence will explain:

"To the Mayor of San Francisco.—The Mayor of Adelaide congratulates the Mayor of San Francisco on the occasion of the banquet at Adelaide to celebrate the completion of telegraphic communication with the world. Dated Nov. 15, 1872."

"San Francisco, Nov. 15, 9:25 A. M.—The Mayor of San Francisco congratulates the Mayor of Adelaide upon an event so interesting to the social relations and general prosperity of Australia and California."

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—The examination of Col. Lee, Silas Stone, "Fern," and the colored woman, Mary Pleasanton, for harboring and concealing Riley and the Brothertons after their escape, was commenced in the Police Court at 2 P. M. to-day.

The Harbor Commissioners have asked all merchants, who have paid money to wharfingers within a few months past, to send in an account of the same. The work of examining books will probably occupy most of next week.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—Jacob Stohl was shot to-night on Vallejo street, by Louis Ferral. A slight wound in the thigh sent Stohl to the hospital and Ferral to jail.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—Wm. R. Stiles, an old and respected citizen of Wilmington, committed suicide last evening by cutting an artery in the right arm. Cause, family troubles.

Third days' races at Agricultural Park, trotting race, 3 in 5; five entries; two horses run, Blonde and Steinway. Won in 3 straight heats by Blonde; best time, 2:40. Running race, single mile dash, 5 entries; won by Monte Belle; time, 1:52. Pacing race, 3 in 5, free for all to harness; three entries; two horses run; won by Sunflower in 3 straight heats; best time, 2 54.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 15.—Additional returns from three counties in Arizona show a solid vote for McCormick in each precinct.

Major Royal, 5th Cavalry, who arrived to-day, reports that the Superintendent of Indian Affairs of Arizona has discovered that fifty or more Yuma and Apache Indians lately escaped from Camp Date Creek Reservation and took refuge with friendly Indians on Colorado river. All Arizonians now here protest against attaching Arizona to the Department of New Mexico and the assignment of Gen. Howard or any one else to command in place of Gen. Crook.

The same paper says of the participants in the late massacre: "It is established beyond a question that at least 34 Indians were engaged, and 13 of them known to have drawn rations at Camp Date Creek Reservation on the 1st of November, 1871. On the 5th the massacre was committed. Of these 13, six were known to have been on Date Creek Reservation and before September, 1872.

VISALIA, Nov. 15.—William A. Hart was sentenced this morning to be hanged December 20th, for the murder of Levi Fletcher. He was his partner. The Supreme Court denied a new trial. Thomas Woody was also sentenced to be hanged on the same day for the murder of John Finlay, in August last.

YREKA, Nov. 15.—Last Wednesday, Neil Campbell, of Crystal Creek sawmill, in Scott Valley, was terribly beaten by a man working for him by the name of Arnold, who assaulted him with a pitchfork, and after breaking that, beat him on the head with stones.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

Jackson and Josephine Returns.

JACKSONVILLE, O., Nov. 15.—The following is the official vote of Jackson county: Greeley, 570; Grant, 526; O'Conor, 16.

Josephine county gives Grant a majority of 15.

A young lady who is studying French, lately wrote to her parents that she was "invited out to a dejeuner the day before," and was going to a fete champetre the next day." The professor of the college was surprised to receive a despatch from the "old man" a day or two after, saying: "If you can't keep my daughter away from these blasted menageries and side shows, I will come down and see what ails her."

THE TERRITORIES.

Wood in Walla Walla sells at $6 to $8 per cord.

Pacific county, W. T., gave a majority of seventy for Garfielde for Congress.

Hon. H. G. Struve has entered upon his duties as Secretary of Washington Territory.

Gov. Ferry, of Washington Territory, has issued the usual Thanksgiving Proclamation for the 28th inst.

A new steam saw mill is being erected on Rock Creek, Stevens county, W. T. The castings for the same are being turned out at a foundry in Walla Walla.

The new Episcopal church at Walla Walla is about completed, and is regarded as a very neat and substantial structure, supplying a long felt church need in the place.

The settlers on San Juan Island are preparing for a grand jubilee when the island is handed over to the Americans. Among other things an ox will be roasted whole—no reflection, of course, upon John Bull.

The ship Dashing Wave, now loading at the Tacoma mills, near Olympia, for San Francisco, has made three round trips between the two ports in one hundred and two days. She is now loading for the fourth trip.

The counties of Jefferson, King, Kitsap and Thurston, in our sister Territory, are reported as having given a majority of 175 in favor of holding a convention to form a constitution for the future State of Washington.

Yakima City contains about a dozen houses, but there is room for more. There are two or three stores and about an equal number of saloons and blacksmith shops. There are two hotels, the Chemeketa and Occidental.

The Union says: The early fall sown grain in Walla Walla Valley is now up to a good height and looks fine generally, and that sown later is coming up. They have had so much rain that grain looks better than it usually does at this season, and there is also more sown than is usually put in in the fall. Some farmers are still plowing and sowing.

According to the Dispatch, Seattle will take the premium for wickedness. Sin, in its most revolting forms, stalks rampant through the streets in open day, and decency and good order are apparently forgotten. This we credit to the local papers, and we don't want any Seattleite to charge us with having abused their town. But if what the Dispatch says is true, a missionary is badly needed over there.

The following is a summary of the business done at the Land Office at Walla Walla, since its establishment July 17th, 1871, to November 1, 1872: Four hundred and two pre-emption applications filed, for 48,040 acres; 140 homestead applications filed, for 16,864 acres; 145 cash entries, for 10,002 acres; 56 final homestead certificates have been issued for 8,205 acres; 220 acres have been located, with military land warrants. Total number of acres disposed of since July 17, 1871, 90,121.

At a late term of the District Court held at Yakima, W. T., the first ever held there, the calendar was light, and contained three cases for selling whisky without license, in all of which the defendants pleaded guilty and were fined $20 and cost. Patrick Lynch was indicted for assault with intent to murder, and another man was indicted for libel—both cases were continued. There were two or three other small matters came before the Court, and these constituted the sum total of the business at the term.

The British Colonist of the 8th instant has the following: "We understand that the Starr Bros. have disposed of their entire interest in the steamboats navigating the waters of Puget Sound. The purchasers are the Northern Pacific Railway Company, and the Oregon Steam Navigation Company intend monopolizing the water carriage of Puget Sound. They will also build first class steamers of the Mississippi model, and run them between Kalama and Walla Walla on the Columbia river."

OREGON.

Oregon City has employed a night watchman.

Edith O'Gorman will lecture at Albany on next Monday night.

The ladies of Corvallis are preparing a beautiful flag to be presented to the firemen of that place.

The election of municipal officers to serve the citizens of Albany for the year 1873, comes off on December 2d.

W. R. Cannon has sold out his interest in the Albany and Corvallis stage line to a gentleman from the latter place.

The Enterprise says the bad weather of the last few days has seriously interfered with the work on the Locks and Canal at Oregon City.

The new Methodist Church, four miles east of Albany, will be dedicated by Rev. Stephen Bowers, of Salem, on Sabbath, November 14, 1872.

A hard shell Democrat in Linn county explained recently that he could and did not support Greeley, "because he was the first man to advocate general amnesty."

Work on the Albany and Santiam Ditch is still progressing with vigor, and will be pushed forward until it is completed unless the heavy rains should cause the Santiam to overflow its banks. There is now 800 feet of ditch finished, and 1,250 feet dug to the depth of eight feet. The cutting averages twelve feet in depth, twenty feet wide at the bottom and sloped one by one.

The Grape Sugar Industry.

The manufacture of grape sugar has assumed large proportions. In Germany there were in 1868, sixty establishments in operation, which produced that year 22,000,000 pounds of syrup and 8,000,000 of sugar. Since that time other and more extensive factories have been established, and the cultivation of potatoes for the purpose also covering a large extent of territory. The potato plantations are usually in sandy districts adapted to their growth. The method pursued in nearly all of the refineries is identical. The wet starch is first put into a large washtub, where, under constant stirring for an hour, it is entirely dissolved in water and dilute acid. From the washtubs it is run into vats where it can be boiled by steam—here it remains for sugar four or five hours, for syrup two or three hours. It is then put into the neutralizing tanks to be treated with carbonate of lime and left until the sediment, chiefly composed of gypsum, has settled; this usually requires six hours. The sweet liquid thus obtained is evaporated in vacuum pans, filtered, and left to crystalize, if sugar is to be made, or manufactured into syrup. The process does not essentially differ from that pursued in the United States, where corn starch is chiefly employed.

The great increase in the wine-growing districts of America has occasioned an enlarged demand for glucose, and the manufacture of this article appears destined to assume large proportions in the United States, where corn can be obtained in unlimited quantity.

Nebraska is about to receive forty thousand Russian mennonites, who are obliged to go into the army of the Czar or emigrate. They choose to emigrate, as their religion, a cross between the Baptist and the Quaker, forbids their bearing arms.

Former Fires in Boston.

THE CONFLAGRATIONS THAT HAVE SWEPT THE CITY SINCE 1711.

Boston, in common with all large towns which are chiefly built of wood, has suffered very much by fire. Formerly the buildings in town were principally of that material; but by efficient measures adopted by the citizens, particularly the law of 1803, prohibiting the construction of wooden buildings of a greater hight than ten feet, a large portion of the old buildings were taken down, and their places supplied with solid walls of brick and stone. We give a few of the

MOST MEMORABLE FIRES.

In October, 1711, a fire broke out in William's Court and destroyed most of the buildings on both sides of Cornhill, now Washington street, from School street to Market street.

On the 30th of March, 1760, 174 dwelling houses, 175 warehouses, ships, etc., were burned. This fire was in the center of the town (Cornhill, State and Congress streets to Fort Hill), and the amount of property consumed was estimated at $100,000 sterling.

On April 27, 1787, a fire began in Beech street and extended south, destroying sixty dwelling houses, forty other building, and the church in Hollis street.

On July 30, 1794, seven rope-walks, between Pearl and Atkinson streets, and about ninety other buildings in that neighborhood were destroyed. Loss, more than $200,000.

On the 3d of November, 1818, the Boston Exchange Coffee-house was burned. This building covered 12,753 feet of ground; was seven stories high, and from the floor to the top of the dome was 83 feet. It contained 210 rooms, and cost $500,000. The fire occurred at night, and the sight was awfully sublime.

At noon on July 7, 1824, the wind blowing almost a gale, fifteen costly dwelling-houses were burned on Beacon, Charles and Chestnut streets.

On April 7, 1824, a very destructive fire began on Doane street. Fifty-three large warehouses with a great amount of merchandise, were burned.

On November 10, 1815, twenty stores and shops and a number of other buildings on Court street were burned.

During five years, 1830-34, there were 226 fires. The amount of property destroyed was $274,278, of which $149,943 was insured. The most destructive fires were in 1833. In that year 71 fires occurred and $89,970 value of property was destroyed.

The Dispersion of the Jews.

The Allegemeine Zietung gives some interesting particulars as to the dispersion of the Jews over the world. In Palestine they have long been reduced to a very small proportion of their former numbers. They are now most numerous in the Northern part of Africa, between Morocco and Egypt (where, especially in the Barbary States, they form the chief element of the population), and in that strip of Europe which extends from the lower Danube to the Baltic. In the latter region there are about 4,000,000 Jews most of whom are of the middle class, among the Slavonic nationalities, while in the whole of Western Europe there not 100,000 [illegible]. In consequence of European [illegible] the descendants of these Jews have settled in [illegible] and Austria, where they are already multiplying in the large commercial towns in the same manner as in Europe, and much more rapidly than the Christian population. The Jewish settlers in Northern Africa are also increasing so much that they constantly spread farther to the South. Timbuctoo has, since 1858, been inhabited by a Jewish colony of traders. The other Jews in Africa are the Falashas, or Abyssinian black Jews, and a few European Jews at the Cape of Good Hope. There are numerous Jewish colonies in Yemen and Nedschran, in Western Arabia.

It has long been known that there are Jews in Persia and the countries on the Euphrates; in the Turcoman countries they inhabit the four fortresses of Scherisebs, Kitab, Schamatan, and Urta Kurgan, and thirty small villages, residing in a separate quarter, but treated on an equal footing with the other inhabitants, though they have to pay higher taxes. There are also Jews in China, and in Cochin China there are both white and black Jews. The white Jews have a tradition, according to which in the year 70 A. D. their ancestors were 10,000 Jews who settled at Cranganore, on the coast of Malabar, after the destruction of the Temple of Jerusalem. The Jews remained at Cranganore until 1565, when they were driven into the interior by the Portuguese. The black settlers are supposed to be native proselytes, and have a special synagogue of their own.

A Word to Fathers.

We have read a story of a little boy, who when he wanted a new suit of clothes, begged his mother to ask his father if he might have it. The mother suggested that the boy might ask for himself. "I would," said the boy, "but I don't feel well enough acquainted with him." There is a sharp reproof to his father in the reply of his son. Many a father keeps his children so at a distance from him that they never feel confidentially acquainted with him. They feel that he is a sort of monarch in the family. They feel no familiarity with him. They fear him and respect him, and even love him some, for children can not help loving everybody about them; but they seldom get near enough to feel intimate with him. They seldom go to him with their little wants and trials; they approach him through the mother. They have a highway to her heart on which they go in and out with perfect freedom. In this keeping-off plan, fathers are too blame. Children should not be held off. Let them come near. Let them be as intimate with the father as with the mother. Let their little hearts be freely opened. It is wicked to freeze up the love fountains in the little ones' hearts—fathers do them an injury by living with them as strangers. This drives many a child away from home for the sympathy his heart craves, and often into improper society. It nurses discontent and mistrust, which many a child does not out-grow in a lifetime. Open your hearts and your arms, oh, fathers; be free with your children; ask for their wants and trials; play with them; be fathers to them truly, and they will not need a mediator between they and you.

THE HALL TRIAL.—Mr. John B. Baker, of No. 56 Dey street, a juror in the Hall case, says the statement that the vote of the jury stood seven for conviction and five for acquittal is erroneous. The vote stood as follows: Seven voted for returning a verdict of "willful and international neglect of duty as Mayor and President of the Board of Audit;" three were for erasing the words "willful and international," and two voted for acquittal. The balloting was changed in the morning, on the suggestion of a juror, to read, "Neglect of duty, not willful, intentional or knowingly," to which all agreed except two. Two of the jurors were certainly influenced. One of them was in a room with District Attorney Garvin, Judge Brady and others for several minutes before the case went to the jury, and he had been seen, it is alleged, to go into the Mayor's office.—*N. SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 16, 1872

That "High Judicial Authority."

At last we have smoked out the Herald. It produces the authority on which Governor Grover stated in his veto message that "high judicial authority" had held that the litigant newspapers have a franchise in the public printing that can not be taken away by the Legislature. Those who were surprised at the Governor's advancing the absurd proposition as one based on authority, will, we apprehend, be still more surprised to find that the authority upon which he relies, is no more nor less than a business card in a Democratic newspaper of San Francisco, of which the following is a copy.

IMPORTANT TO LITIGANTS.

Two District Judges have decided that the Litigant law conferred a FRANCHISE, under which the Examiner is the only newspaper in this city and county in which legal advertisements can be properly published for the next four years. The Supreme Court must pass upon the question.

With this newspaper advertisement, and nothing else to stand upon, the Herald proceeds:

> Our neighbor will see, therefore, that when Governor Grover, in his veto message, referred to judicial authority, as vindicating his views, he had two decisions, by two different Judges in an adjoining State, to sustain him.

How is that for a basis upon which his Excellency grounds his action annulling acts of the Legislature of Oregon? Nothing but a business advertisement found in a Democratic newspaper published in California, saying that two "District Judges" have decided so and thus! And all this vaporing about "high judicial authority" has come to this! Two nisi prius judges, forsooth, have expressed such an opinion—not on the bench, or it would have been mentioned as the decisions of district courts—not in any case pending, or the case would have been cited by a paper so anxious to give credit to the fact that it keeps it as a standing advertisement! Merely the street opinion of two judges of inferior courts, given without judicial discussion or examination of the question, and even this taken upon the bold assertion of an obscure Democratic newspaper's advertising card. The protracted silence of the Governor's litigant organ upon this matter of judicial authority placed both him and his editor in a very awkward position, but that silence would have remained unbroken forever, had not their discretion deserted them. The Herald says it has "no desire to prolong this discussion." We should suppose it would not wish to have much more said upon the subject. It had been well for its editor's reputation for prudence, if he stopped the discussion at least one day sooner.

Another Roasting of Miners.

Announcements of terrible disasters by fire in mines have become frightfully common within the last few years. At very short intervals the world is informed that this mine or that one, has taken fire, and that with almost superhuman effort ten, twenty, or some other specific number of men have been saved, while all the rest of the entire force employed have been doomed to the most horrible of deaths. News of this sort comes so frequently that it scarcely excites attention or causes remark. This morning the announcement is that a mine in Stratfordshire, England, has ignited, and that twenty-two out of thirty-three men who were in the mine at the time, are still in the burning pit, with little hope of escape. Only a short time since a similar accident, though not quite equal to this in the number of lives lost, happened at another English mine. All remember the horrible fate of a large number in a Pennsylvania mine a year or two since, and the still more recent and scarcely less appalling story of the fire in the Gold Hill mines.

Such a system, or want of system as the case may be, as allows this class of accidents to happen so frequently certainly calls for especial attention. If the self-interest of the owners of the mines is not sufficient to enforce the best possible regulations for safety, both as to the mode of constructing the tunnels and shafts, and as to their working after they are once constructed, there ought to be a power brought to bear from without, that would be sufficient. There are no more cogent reasons why stringent laws should be enacted to secure people from being blown up or crushed to death on board steamboats, than there are why similar means should be employed to prevent their being roasted to death in subterranean furnaces. If it is impossible so to operate a mine that there is no danger of its taking fire, the commonest sense of humanity would seem to demand that suitable provision be made in connection with every such work for the escape of those who are in the pits when the fire breaks out. Engineering science ought certainly to be equal to this emergency.

The following statement of freight charges on wheat in the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys, by river and bay, are furnished us by a gentleman of San Francisco who has been for some years, and still is, engaged in the produce trade exclusively:

From Sacramento to San Francisco, 117 miles, $1 50 per ton, or 4½ cents per bushel of 60 pounds.

From Stockton to San Francisco, 117 miles, the same rates as from Sacramento.

From Red Bluff to San Francisco, 400 miles, $7 50 per ton, or 22½ cents per bushel of 60 pounds.

A great portion of this freighting from Sacramento and Stockton, and from points nearer San Francisco, is done with schooners and barges, which, on reaching San Francisco, lie alongside and put the wheat on board the ship for export, without farther charges. That which is brought in steamboats, as from Red Bluff and Chico, if brought in small amounts, is landed on the San Francisco wharf, and is, of course, subject to wharfage charges; but if the steamboat has a large amount of wheat on board, she delivers it on board the ship as the other vessels do.

One of the surviving passengers of the steamship Missouri, makes a statement of facts, which, if true, proves the officers of that ill-fated vessel to have been guilty of inexcusable negligence. The fire, he says, was discovered about the hour of 9, in the morning, when half the crew were below and the passengers were at breakfast. With proper efforts the flames might have been extinguished, or at least the boats might have been so guarded and manned, that no lives need have been lost. There were four boats hanging from the davits, which would have been sufficient to save all on board, had not the panic caused such a distribution of the persons to be carried away by them as to swamp some of them. There was ample time after it was discovered that the ship must be abandoned, for the boats to be lowered in good order and the passengers and crew got off in safety.

There was an intense excitement in the French Chamber of Deputies the other evening, because a Deputy, in the course of debate, remarked that the Republic was permanently established. The agitation was so great, it was with difficulty that order was restored. What there could be in such a remark to create excitement among a people who have been living under a Republic for two years, and apparently making their arrangements to continue in that condition, we cannot perceive. One would naturally suppose from the peaceful and prosperous course of the French nation under the republican regime, and the recent exchange of compliments between the Presidents of the United States and France, that the sentiment of the Deputy would have been most cordially reciprocated. It would not be difficult to understand the reported agitation, considering the excitability of the French character, if the Deputy had said the Republic was not established.

Emperor William, of Germany, is not disposed to be balked in his purpose to pass the Country Reform Bill. The indications are that he will make Peers of a sufficient number of persons favorable to the measure, and who are not now eligible to seats in the House of Peers, to secure the adoption of the measure, over the votes of those noblemen who prevented its passage at the recent session of the Diet. This is an old resort of kingcraft, and generally a successful one.

A Boston dispatch announces the death at his residence in East Cambridge, on the 14th instant, of Lieut. Col. A. H. Stevens, who commanded a battalion of Massachusetts cavalry in the war, and was the officer who first entered Richmond, and received the surrender of that city from the Mayor.

Greeley's majority in Jackson county is 44 instead of 100; and Grant's majority in Josephine is 15 instead of 10. This makes Grant's net plurality 3,566, with Coos, Curry, Union and Wasco to hear from.

The monthly statement of the public debt of October 31, shows a reduction of $5,226,417 31 during the month of October. The entire debt on the 1st of the present month was $2,161,766,260 14.

The dispatches tell of more fires. Yesterday there was destroyed at Lawrence, Kansas, property of the value of $30,000; at Missouri Valley Junction, Mo., $35,000; at Philadelphia, $150,000.

The San Francisco Chronicle is responsible for the statement that an amateur dramatic entertainment recently given in that city was opened with a prayer by Rev. Dr. Woodbridge.

The San Francisco Alta has a map showing the burnt district of Boston.

No Copyright on Paintings.

The Boston Commonwealth publishes the following statement of facts, and judicial decision, upon the question whether a painting can be copyrighted:

> Arthur Parton, an artist of New York, sold, some years since, a small painting called the "Close of Day," to a gentleman in Connecticut, who, in his turn, sold it to De Vries, the Boston art dealer. It was sold by Mr. Parton in the usual way—without conditions other than cash on delivery; and again it was sold without any stipulation whatever by the art-dealer. The last purchaser was Mr. Louis Prang, who reproduced it in chromo with the knowledge of Mr. Parton, who made no objection, but, on its publication, entered a claim for copyright. As Mr. Prang had already paid the full value of the painting, he declined to accede to this new demand; whereupon a suit was entered to compel the recognition of the artist's claim. Judge Clifford, of the United States Circuit Court, sitting in Boston, has just decided the case. The court held that the word "manuscript" in the copyright law does not include a picture; and on the question of estoppel cited Bigelow to the effect that the acts and declarations of Mr. Parton at the time of the sale amounted to a practical affirmance of the contract of sale and delivery of the entire property of the picture as understood and claimed by Mr. Prang. The opinion closed as follows: "Unfairness is not pretended in this case, and inasmuch as the sale and delivery were in their terms absolute and unconditional, and without any reservation, restriction or qualification of any kind, the court is of the opinion that the complainant is not entitled to relief."

The N. Y. Times of Nov. 3, has an article upon the epidemic that prevails so extensively among the horses in the Atlantic cities, from which it appears that there has been considerable mortality in the stables of New York, and that car companies are inclined to understate their losses. It is thus rendered difficult to ascertain the number of deaths with anything like accuracy. The Times says:

> In nearly every street of the up-town portion of the city dead horses are lying in the gutter, many of them having died several days since, and being consequently an intolerable nuisance. So serious has the matter become that it is proposed in many quarters to have the carcasses removed by private subscription, which would probably be the best and only means of speedy riddance, as the public facilities appear wholly inadequate. The lower part of the city is similarly neglected, the horses being allowed to remain from two to five days before removal. The police yesterday reported finding ninety seven dead horses and one dead mule, at the various stables and in the streets, during the day.

At a masonic festival in Kentucky recently the grand master delivered an address, which wound up as follows. "May masonry ever be found true and faithful to her sublime mission of 'Faith, hope and charity.' May it survive the wreck of its enemies and the crush of morals, and in the final adjustment of all earthly things, may it return in spotless purity to the God who gave it, and live forever in a perfect sea of glory."

Old Daniel Drew sat in a "corner," eating an Erie pie. He put in his thumb, and pulled out a plum, and he found it netted a little over a million dollars. Daniel is a good boy, and particularly fond of corners.

BOARD OF LAND COMMISSIONERS.

[From the Statesman, Nov. 14th.]

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS—IMPORTANT CASES DECIDED.

Board of Land Commissioners met at 11 o'clock, November 11: Paragraph in the case of A R Flint vs. Stephen Minard; case heard on evidence and decided. Minard held to be the proper applicant under the law.

In the case of A R Flint vs. M Eberline, case heard, decision the same as above.

Case of Jno. D Fay vs Jesse Applegate, to settle right of purchase of certain swamp lands in Jackson county; postponed till December 10th, 1872.

Sam Culver vs. Durbin and others, to determine who is rightful purchaser of certain State lands in Jackson county; postponed till second Tuesday in January.

In the case of Jno. S. Burnett vs. Penning, as to who is rightful purchaser of certain State lands in Jackson county, postponed to complete the taking of testimony.

After transacting considerable business of a miscellaneous character, the Board adjourned over one month.

There are altogether a trifle over sixty-one thousand merchant vessels in the world.

MARRIED:

In Portland, Nov 14th, by the Rev. Father S. F. Fierens, V G, Major M P. Berry and Jenny Eden, both of Salem.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 16, 1872

CITY.

DON'T SCRIBBLE.—There is no action more natural to persons than to draw a pencil from the pocket and write on a white plastered or painted wall. It is a most thoughtless and aimless habit in contrast, and one for which there exists less excuse than almost any other practice, not involving serious criminal consequences. It is said that his Satanic Majesty always finds work for idle hands to perform, and wherever numbers of persons congregate to loiter around and "kill time," there are abundant traces about such localities to indicate the "hand of leisure." It would be a difficult matter to select a street corner, or kindred locality, used as a sort of free and easy rendezvous, and not find it marked and disfigured in many ways. In this age, when the jack knife is one of the favorite weapons to murder time with, you might rest assured that all the white pine goods boxes in the vicinity will be whittled half away, and the lamp posts for that matter too, if they shouldn't happen to be cast iron. During the continuance of the Circuit Court, the Court House becomes a resort for many persons who are afflicted with much painful leisure. Cutting wooden boxes and scribbling on the walls, will no doubt afford infinite amusement to those of ingenious turn of mind. For the express benefit of such whittling and scribbling geniuses, we will remark, not parenthetically, that the Circuit Court is now in session, and that the walls of the interior of the Court House building have been re painted throughout, and all the large wooden boxes lined with zinc. Sheriff Caywood has intimated that he will prosecute any person who is detected in writing on the walls or trying the edge of a knife on the furniture.

CRIMINAL JOTTINGS.—Judge Denny dismissed the case yesterday of the State vs. Caroline Parry, charged with the larceny of a silver watch, the prosecuting witness not putting in an appearance at the designated time.

The case of John Winters, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of keeping in his stall, and exposing for sale, tainted and unwholesome meat, will come up in the police court this morning.

H. Burkhelmer, charged with larceny, was tried yesterday in Justice Ryan's Court. The defendant was discharged, bond exonerated, and the cost of the suit taxed to the prosecuting witness, amounting to about $68.

Ah Gong, the Chinaman charged with having feloniously appropriated a gold ring valued at $40, from a wash stand in Graham's barber shop, was called for examination before Judge Denny, yesterday morning.

A fellow who boards at a hotel on Front street came to his supper last evening in a state of semi-intoxication. Not taking a fancy to something which occurred he drew a knife and walked up and down the dining room brandishing it. The room was speedily vacated, until a police officer appeared on the scene and led the man to jail. The case comes up for trial this morning.

A couple of sailors employed on the schooner Mila Rand assaulted Captain Corno of the same vessel last evening about 8 o'clock, at the corner of Taylor and Second. The object of the assault evidently was to rob Captain Corno. He called lustily for a police. Two appeared at once and the two birds were led away to hold an interview with Judge Denny this morning.

ALL AGROUND.—Passengers from down the river inform us that the bark Webfoot, steamer Vancouver and a large scow, are all aground at the head of Sauvie's Island. The Webfoot was blown ashore last Wednesday evening as she was on the way to Astoria in tow of a tug. The wind at that point was unusually violent, and the gale getting the advantage of the vessel, carried her directly on the head of the Island, in spite of the efforts of the tug. Her hull was driven into the sand so deep that all efforts to extricate her proved unavailing. Thursday afternoon, as the steamer Vancouver was on the way down the river, she attempted to effect a landing to put ashore a passenger at the head of the Island, just astern the Webfoot. The wind was blowing a perfect hurricane. The steamer was caught and drifted sidewise on the sand, and beached so firmly that all the power of her wheel could not drag her clear. A short time after, a large scow was driven helpless before the furious gale, and found a secure "footing" alongside the two vessels. All three were aground up to yesterday noon, with no immediate prospect of getting off, except to wait for the winds to lull and the tide to flow.

BOUND HENCE.—The following passengers took their departure last evening for San Francisco on the Oriflamme: A G Dedfeoearfor, M Corny, Mrs Corny, John Lynch, A W Lester, H Hodges, N Flickinger, James Tollin, Miss E La Forest, Miss Annie Johnson, L F Warren, S Allen wife and 2 children, John Rinns and wife, Mrs H Fessler and infant, Norton Larrabee, G Brown, F Miller, A E Wait, wife and child, J Bedlick, Wm DuBois, Amos Dibb, J W Ragsdale, C L Reed, A S Corny, Miss Eddan, E C Harlan and wife, Eugene Bartholow, H McCrum and family, Maj M P Berry and wife, L P McCarthy, G M Martin, Dr. Phillips, U S A, Mrs Warren, John Johnson, Isaac Smith, H H Roberts, wife and 2 children, Miss Minnie Gill, Miss Ella La Rue, M Eisner, W A Goodyear, H W Chamberlain, Eugene Laforest, John W Moore, W H Dierdorff, Mrs Judge Mix, W Pumphery, W L Myers, and 28 in steerage.

WINDY.—Yesterday the wind was stirring around the corners quite lively. Often we have seen the wind blow much stronger, but during cold weather would much desire to see it blow with less violence, just simply as a matter of convenience, if for nothing else. Persons who came down the Columbia river Thursday seem to think that the gales of yesterday are but gentle zephyrs compared with those which swept up and down that river. At Cape Horn a wind storm of terrific force was encountered. For a time it gave the powerful steamer Emma Hayward a vigorous tussle to make perceptible headway, but steam at last compelled old Boreas to succumb. One passenger jocosely remarked that the wind was so strong that it loosened his cowhide brogans, and another was heard to declare that the paint on the boat changed its color several times.

FOR CALLAO.—By the outgoing steamer yesterday evening several parties who have been connected for some time with the Northern Pacific Railroad as surveyors, took their departure. These parties will proceed to San Francisco and from thence embark for Callao by sail or steamer. Their intentions are to engage in railroading at that place on some of the lines leading into the interior under the ownership and control of Harry Meiggs, the South America railroad prince. There is said to be a demand for experienced surveyors and railroad men, and a good field offered to those who possess these qualifications and are willing to brave the many dangers incident to the tropics. Among the party are sons of the late William Deardorff and Colonel Larrabee.

PRETTY WELL DOWN.—Portlanders shiver and mutter through their chattering teeth about the weather when the thermometer gets as low as 30°. The instrument has descended to that point several times during the past few days, but the average temperature has been several degrees above. East of the mountains the weather has been bitter cold, if the thermometer is to be taken as a standard. Thursday forenoon the temperature ranged as low as 14° at Walla Walla and 15° at Wallula. That's cold enough to give one's ears and nose an indigo hue, and make a fellow's countenance as blue as when a newly married man has presented to him his wife's millinery bill.

COURTS.—The U. S. District Court will convene this morning at the usual hour.

The Circuit Court will meet this morning at 9 o'clock. The day will be devoted to the arguing and deciding of motions.

The County Court will convene this forenoon. The object of this meeting is to examine and adopt a design for the iron fence to be placed upon the stone wall to surround the Court House, and to let the contract for putting up the same.

WENT DOWN.—The little schooner Katie Herron completed her cargo yesterday for Tillamook. Availing of the strong winds, she hoisted sail and passed down the raging Wallamet a "fluking." Astoria ought to be reached early this morning by the Katie, judging from the speed at which she went "like a thing of beauty" from our optics, providing some sand spit has not received her before this time.

ENTIRE LOSS.—The entire losses sustained by the Imperial Fire Insurance Company during the recent calamitous conflagration at Boston, do not exceed the sum of $500,000. Messrs. Hewitt, Wilson & Co., are the agents in this city.

PUPILS.—There are now in attendance at the St. Helen's Hall, 127 female pupils, 30 of whom are regular boarders. The Bishop Scott Grammar School now have in attendance 80 pupils, of whom 26 are boarders.

ALMOST FINISHED.—The new addition to the Bishop Scott Grammar School is almost finished, nothing further being necessary than the last finishing touches from the brush. The lower story will be occupied with pupils as a school room, the second devoted to chapel purposes, and the third used for dormitories. Divine services will be held to-morrow for the first time in the new Chapel.

STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.—Governor Grover has appointed ex Governor John Whiteaker, Hon. N. H. Gates and ex Governor Geo. L. Curry, as a State Board of Equalization. These gentlemen will meet and organize at Salem next Monday, the 17th inst., and proceed to business. The Governor has also appointed Colonel H. C. Paige to be Register of the Land Office at La Grande.

DISCHARGED.—The grand jury yesterday in the case of the State of Oregon vs. A. B. Hallock, charged with perjury, and the case of the State vs I. M. King, for the publication of alleged libellous statements in the Herald, returned in both instances "not a true bill." On motion of counsel both defendants were discharged from custody and their bondsmen exonerated.

LARGE SWAN.—A very large snow white swan was shot down on the Columbia a few days ago, and brought to the city yesterday on the steamer Fannie Troup. It is one of the largest which we have yet seen of the species, measuring about six feet from the point of the beak to the tail. The fowl possesses a wealth of silk like down fit to grace the neck of a princess.

GATHERING STATISTICS.—Mr. John Mortimer Murphy is now at Walla Walla canvassing and collecting materials for the Oregon Directory and Statistical Record, soon to be issued by S. J. McCormick. Mr. Murphy is coming this way and will be at the Dalles in a few days.

FOR REPAIRS.—Portions of the castings attached to a steam engine used to propel a steamer was brought down yesterday on the Dalles boat. Some repairs are necessary to be made to the machinery. The machinery will be returned as soon as the needed work is done.

BOUND FOR CHINA.—The bark Forward bound for Hongkong, crossed the bar in tow of the tug Astoria yesterday. The Forward carries away about 600 tons of assorted freight and 250 Chinese passengers.

DETAINED.—The Josie McNear did not reach Astoria last Wednesday night until after midnight in consequence of the continued head winds she encountered on the downward passage.

State of Oregon vs I. M. King; on motion defendant ordered discharged, and bondsmen exonerated.

State of Oregon vs A. B. Hallock, same order as above.

PERSONAL

His Excellency Governor L. F. Grover is sojourning in the city.

Charles Vivian will depart from the city next Monday. He will proceed overland to California, giving entertainments at the several inland towns along the route. Arriving at San Francisco, he will start for the East to secure an engagement.

J. L. McCarthy, traveling correspondent of the Pacific Rural Press, departed on the Oriflamme last evening for San Francisco. He has been on a corresponding tour through the Wallamet valley, since his arrival in the State, and has written several interesting letters concerning the resources of this country.

Mr. M. D. Merrick, who was sent as a delegate by the Champions of the Red Cross of this State and Washington Territory, to confer with the Executive Committee of the Grand Encampment of California, and from them obtain the necessary authority to institute an Encampment in this State, took his departure last evening on the Oriflamme.

Mr. Archibald Blair, formerly one of the principal surveyors on the Oregon and California Railroad, Chief Engineer for the Wallamet Bridge Company, and recently employed in making preliminary surveys for the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad, in Eastern Oregon, took his departure last evening on the Oriflamme for San Francisco. Mr. Blair contemplates returning to this city next spring, on the resumption of operations on the last mentioned line of road.

AMUSEMENTS.

A grand matinee performance will be given this afternoon at the theater.

Wilson's Circus will perform at Marysville, California, next Monday evening.

A very flattering audience was present last evening at the theater on the occasion of Mrs. Waldron's benefit. The touching drama of "East Lynne" was rendered expressly for the occasion. The cast was very judiciously distributed, and well calculated to call out the strength of the company. Mrs. Waldron assumed the character of Lady Isabella, and Madam Vine. The beneficiary outdid herself in rendering the part allotted her. She assumed the part of the jealous wife and the misguided mistress in a very touching manner, which brought tears to the eyes of many in the audience. The last, dying scene was peculiarly affecting. The benefit was a fitting and substantial testimonial of the esteem in which Mrs. Waldron is held in this community.

SPECIAL CHURCH NOTICES.

On Sunday morning next, at 11 o'clock, Rev. J. H. Babcock, of Corvallis, will preach at St. Stephen's Chapel, Madison and Fourth streets. The usual Academic service at 4 o'clock. Seats free.

The subject of the morning sermon at the Baptist Church, corner of Fourth and Alder streets, will be "Lessons from God in the Burning of Boston." The ordinance of Christian baptism will be administered during the evening service.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

The great fire at Boston has created profound sensation throughout the country, and, consequently, everybody is rushing to Cahalin's to get their boots and shoes, to provide against the cold rains and more disagreeable snows of Webfoot. Read his new card.

Messrs. Brigham & Beardsley, merchant jewelers, advertise in another column. Their shop is at the corner of Alder and First streets, where a large and splendid assortment of watches, clocks, jewelry, silverware, etc., can always be found. Before purchasing, the public will consult their best interests by calling and inspecting their stock. They are also prepared to do, on short notice, all kinds of repairing, diamond setting and engraving. Give them a call.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The moon is nearly full.

The California will sail this evening.

Warm blankets are a luxury appreciated these nights.

The firm of Gill, Steel & Bancroft has dissolved.

Loose hats didn't adhere to one's head last night worth a cent.

Eggs are quoted at 60 cents per dozen, and scarce at that price.

The schooner Mila Rand has nearly completed discharging her cargo.

Thermometer yesterday—7 A. M., 32°; 2 P. M., 37°; 8 P. M., 33°.

Several signs were blown down Thursday night by the violence of the wind.

Ice has advanced in price. Will soon be plenty of that article for home consumption.

"Clear as a bell" last night. The snow crisp, and the sidewalks like miniature skating rinks.

A Reform School is soon to be established in the city. We have old as well as young offenders who need reformation.

The new term of school of the St. Helens' Hall and Bishop Scott Grammar School will commence on the 1st of next February.

The colored citizens of the city are taking active steps toward the organization of a volunteer military company, with fair prospects of success.

The colored citizens of Portland, we learn, propose to jubilate over the re-election of Gen. Grant, with a grand torch light procession next week.

Thomas Parrott, leader of the East Portland brass band, accompanied by his brother, Thursday, went gunning down the slough, below East Portland, and bagged seventy five fat ducks.

Buy the WEEKLY OREGONIAN of this week and send it to your friends East. It contains an unusual quantity of choice reading matter—editorials, dispatches, commercial, local and miscellaneous news.

SECRET DISCOVERED.—The secret of dressing is not so much in expensive clothing as in the perfect fit of the garments. This fact is thoroughly understood by Fishel & Roberts, corner of First and Washington streets; hence their popularity among gentlemen. Their stock is complete in every department. If you would keep warm during the coming winter, delay not in selecting suitable winter goods. You will certainly experience no trouble in selecting from the new goods recently received at this house. Those who have once dealt with them rarely ever change for another. Fair dealing and courteous manners make business.

IF YOU have not already ordered a fall or winter suit, you should delay no longer. The work turned out by J. O'Neil & Co., 95 First street, is considered by gentlemen of taste as A No. 1. The materials used are of the very best quality. To make room for new goods, some important improvements have been made. Recollect that they keep the best furnishing goods, make fitting suits, and offer goods at prices that meet with favor among all classes.

PUBLIC SPEAKERS AND SINGERS will find Brown's Bronchial Troches beneficial in clearing the voice before speaking or singing, and relieving the throat after any exertion of the vocal organs. For coughs and colds the Troches are effectual.

EVERY mother should teach her children to brush their teeth daily and use Lyon's Tooth Tablets.

RAPID CONSUMPTION is often the penalty of trifling with a severe cough, but no such catastrophe can occur if Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar is taken before the disorganization of the lungs has commenced. Take time by the forelock and you are safe. Crittenton's 7 Sixth Avenue. Sold by all Druggists.

PIKE'S TOOTHACHE DROPS cure in one minute.

The old saying is, "What everybody says must be true," and everyone says that Beck & Waldman have the largest and best selected stock of the latest styles and patterns in gentlemen's Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the city of Portland. They have the largest variety of Boy's, Youth's, and Children's Suits, all which will be sold according to the times. Please call and satisfy yourself that we will not be undersold by anyone.

The Key to Health.

It is the easiest thing in the world to lose the blessings of health, but when lost it is not easy to regain it. The popular idea of fifty years ago, that a tremendous scouring of the bowels was an essential element of cure in almost all diseases, has, fortunately for mankind, been pretty effectually exploded. The introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, nearly a quarter of a century ago, may be said to have given the coup de grace to drastic purgation. The world has learned from the beneficial effects produced by that admirable preparation, that one medicine may embrace the three properties of a tonic, a laxative, and an alterative, that the three curative processes of invigoration, purification and regulation may be compassed at the same time by the operation of a single agreeable remedy. There are sound, philosophical reasons for the remarkable improvement which the Bitters occasion in the condition of a broken and enfeebled system. This pure combination of vegetable juices not only strengthens the stomach, stimulates the appetite and braces the nerves, but also imparts tone and vigor to the secretory organs—the skin, the liver and the kidneys—and if the blood has become too thin and watery to nourish the body properly, enriches and vitalizes that "raw material" of all the solid portions of the frame. At this period of the year, when intermittent fevers, bilious disorders, stomach complaints and dysenteric and diarrhoeic ailments are always more or less rife, occasional doses of the Bitters will be found the best safeguard against the atmospheric conditions which generate them. An accession of general vigor is necessary to enable the system to resist the morbid influence of the malarious vapors which rise from the earth at this season, and of all the known invigorants Hostetter's Bitters is the safest and the most potent.

PLANTATION BITTERS!
S. T.—1860—X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT; FOR MAN AND BEAST.

Probably few articles have ever had so extensive sale, while none have been more universally beneficial than the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT. Children, Adults, Horses and Domestic Animals, are always liable to accident, and it is safe to say, that no family can pass a single season without some kind of an emollient being necessary. It becomes a matter of importance then to secure the best.

Over three hundred livery stables in the city of New York alone are using the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT, in all of which it gives unusual satisfaction.

CAUTION.—The genuine is wrapped in a fine Steel Plate engraving with "G. W. Westbrook, Chemist," and "Trade Mark, MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT," engraved across the face of each wrapper. The whole bears the proprietor's private United States Revenue Stamp, and not a common stamp, as used by druggists.

CITY.

Don't Scribble.—There is no action more natural to persons than to draw a pencil from the pocket and write on a white plastered or painted wall It is a most thoughtless and aimless habit to contract, and one for which there exists less excuse than almost any other practice not involving serious original consequences It is said that his Satanic Majesty always finds work for idle hands to perform, and wherever numbers of persons congregate to loiter around and "kill time," there are abundant traces about such localities to indicate the "hand of leisure" It would be a difficult matter to select a street corner, or kindred locality, used as a sort of free and easy rendezvous, and not find it marked and disfigured in many ways In this age, when the jack knife is one of the favorite weapons to murder time with, you might rest assured that all the white pine goods boxes in the vicinity will be whittled half away, and the lamp posts for that matter too, if they shouldn't happen to be cast iron During the continuance of the Circuit Court, the Court House becomes a resort for many persons who are afflicted with much painful leisure. Cutting wooden boxes and scribbling on the walls, will no doubt afford infinite amusement to those of ingenious turn of mind For the express benefit of such whittling and scribbling geniuses, we will remark, not parenthetically that the Circuit Court is now in session, and that the walls of the interior of the Court House building have been re-painted throughout, and all the large wooden boxes lined with zinc Sheriff Caywood has intimated that he will prosecute any person who is detected in writing on the walls or trying the edge of a knife on the furniture.

Criminal Jottings —Judge Denny dismissed the case yesterday of the State vs Caroline Perry, charged with the larceny of a silver watch, the prosecuting witness not putting in an appearance at the designated time

The case of John Winters, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of keeping in his stall, and exposing for sale, tainted and unwholesome meat, will come up in the police court this morning

M. Duckheimer, charged with larceny, was tried yesterday in Justice Ryan's Court The defendant was discharged, bond exonerated, and the cost of the suit taxed to the prosecuting witness, amounting to about $68

Ah Song, the Chinaman charged with having feloniously appropriated a gold ring valued at $40, from a wash stand in Graham's barber shop was called for examination before Judge Denny yesterday morning

A fellow who boards at a hotel on Front street came to his supper last evening in a state of semi-intoxication Not taking a fancy to something which occurred he drew a knife and walked up and down the dining room brandishing it The room was speedily vacated, until a police officer appeared on the scene and led the man to jail. The case comes up for trial this morning

A couple of sailors employed on the schooner M's Bond assaulted Captain Corno of the same vessel last evening about 8 o'clock, at the corner of Taylor and Second The object of the assault evidently was to rob Captain Corno He called lustily for a police Two appeared at once and the two birds were led away to hold an interview with Judge Denny this morning.

All Aground —Passengers from down the river inform us that the bark Webfoot, steamer Vancouver and a large scow, are all aground at the head of Sauvie's Island The Webfoot was blown ashore last Wednesday evening as she was on the way to Astoria in tow of a tug The wind at that point was unusually violent, and the gale getting the advantage of the vessel carried her directly on the head of the Island in spite of the efforts of the tug Her hull was driven into the sand so deep that all efforts to extricate her proved unavailing Thursday afternoon, as the steamer Vancouver was on the way down the river, she attempted to effect a landing to put ashore a passenger at the head of the Island, just astern the Webfoot The wind was blowing a perfect hurricane. The steamer was caught and drifted sidewise on the sand, and beached so firmly that all the power of her wheel could not drag her clear. A short time after, a large scow was driven helpless before the furious gale and found a secure "footing" alongside the other vessels All three were aground up to yesterday noon, with no immediate prospect of getting off, except to wait for the winds to lull and the tide to flow

Outward Bound.—The following passengers took their departure last evening for San Francisco on the Oriflamme A G Dedfencorfor, M Corey, Mrs Corey, John Lynch, A W Lester, H Hodges, N Fleckinger, James Tellin, Miss E La forest, Miss Annie Johnson, L F Warren, S Allen wife and 2 children, John Rines and wife, Mrs H Rosler and infant, Norton Larrabee, G Brown, F Miller, A E Wait, wife and child, J Bedlich, Wm DuBois, Amos Dibb, J W Ragsdale, C L Reed, A B Corny, Miss Eddan, E C Harlan and wife, Eugene Bartholow, H McCrum and family Maj H P Berry and wife, L P McCarthy, G M Martin, Dr Phillips, U S A, Mrs Warren, John Johnson, Isaac Smith, H H Roberts, wife and 2 children, Miss Minnie Gill, Miss Ella La Rue M Risser, W A Goodyear, H W Chamberlain, Eugene Laforest, John W Moore, W H Dierdorff, Mr Judge Mix, W Pumphery, W L Myers, and 8 in steerage

Windy.—Yesterday the wind was stirring around the corners quite lively Often we have seen the wind blow much stronger, but during such cold weather would much desire to see it blow with less violence, just simply as a matter of convenience, if for nothing else Persons who came down the Columbia river Thursday seem to think the gales of yesterday are but gentle zephyrs compared with those which swept up and down that river At Cape Horn a wind storm of terrific force was encountered For a time it gave the powerful steamer Emma Hayward a vigorous tussle to make perceptible headway, but steam at last compelled old Boreas to succumb One passenger jocosely remarked that the wind was so strong that it loosened his cowhide brogans and another was heard to declare that the paint on the boat changed its color several times

For Callao.—By the outgoing steamer yesterday evening several parties who have been connected for some time with the Northern Pacific Railroad as surveyors, took their departure These parties will proceed to San Francisco and from thence embark for Callao by sail or steamer Their intentions are to engage in railroading at that place on some of the lines leading into the interior under the ownership and control of Harry Meiggs, the South America railroad prince There is said to be a demand for experienced surveyors and railroad men, and a good field offered to those who possess these qualifications and are willing to [illegible] the many discomforts incidental to the tropics. Among the party [illegible] sons of the late William Deardorff and Colonel Lar[illegible]

Pretty Well Down —Portlanders shiver and mutter through their chattering teeth about the weather when the thermometer gets as low as 30° The instrument has descended to that point several times during the past few days but the average temperature has been several degrees above. East of the mountains the weather has been bitter cold, if the thermometer is to be taken as a standard Thursday forenoon the temperature ranged as low as 14° at Walla Walla and 15° at Wallula That's cold enough to give one's ears and nose an indigo hue, and make a fellow's countenance as blue as when a newly married man has presented to him his wife's millinery bill

The Circuit Court will meet this morning at 9 o'clock. The day will be devoted to the arguing and deciding of motions

The County Court will convene this forenoon The object of this meeting is to examine and accept a design for the iron fence to be placed upon the stone wall to surround the Court House, and to let the contract for putting up the same

Went Down —The little schooner Annie Herr completed her cargo yesterday for Tillamook Availing of the strong winds she hoisted sail and passed down the raging Wallamet [illegible] ought to be reached early this morning by the Katie Judging from the speed at which she swept "like a thing of beauty" from our [illegible] providing some sand spit has not received her before this time.

Heavy Loss —The entire losses sustained by the Imperial Fire Insurance Company during the recent calamitous conflagration at Boston do not exceed the sum of $500,000 Messrs Hewitt, Wilson & Co are the agents in this city

Pupils.—There are now in attendance at the St. Helen's Hall, 127 female pupils, 30 of whom are regular boarders. The Bishop Scott Grammar School now have in attendance 80 pupils of whom 28 are boarders.

Almost Finished —The new addition to the Bishop Scott Grammar School is almost finished, nothing further being necessary than the last finishing touches from the brush The lower story will be occupied with pupils as a school room the second devoted to chapel purposes, and the third used for dormitories Divine services will be held to morrow for the first time in the new Chapel.

State Board of Equalization —Governor Grover has appointed ex Governor John Whiteaker Hon N. H Gates and ex Governor Geo L Curry as a State Board of Equalization These gentlemen will meet and organize at Salem next Monday, the 17th inst and proceed to business The Governor has also appointed Colonel H C Paige to be Register of the Land Office at La Grande

Discharged —The grand jury yesterday in the case of the State of Oregon vs A B Hallock, charged with perjury, and the case of the State vs I M King, for the publication of alleged libellous statements in the Herald, returned in both instances "not a true bill" On motion of counsel both defendants were discharged from custody and their bondsmen exonerated

Large Swan —A very large snow white swan was shot down on the Columbia a few days ago and brought to the city yesterday on the steamer Fannie Troup It is one of the largest which we have yet seen of the species, measuring about six feet from the point of the beak to the tail The fowl possesses a wealth of silk like down fit to grace the neck of a princess.

Gathering Statistics —Mr. John Mortimer Murphy is now at Walla Walla canvassing and collecting materials for the Oregon Directory and Statistical Record, soon to be issued by S J McCormick Mr Murphy is coming this way and will be at the Dalles in a few days

For Repairs —Portions of the castings attached to a steam engine used to propel a steamer was brought down yesterday on the Dalles boat. Some repairs are necessary to be made to the machinery The machinery will be returned as soon as the needed work is done

Bound for China —The bark Forward bound for Hongkong, crossed the bar in tow of the tug Astoria yesterday The Forward carries away about 600 tons of assorted freight and 250 Chinese passengers.

Detained.—The Josie McNear did not reach Astoria last Wednesday night until after midnight in consequence of the continued head winds she encountered on the downward passage

PERSONAL

His Excellency Governor L F Grover is sojourning in the city

Charles Vivian will depart from the city next Monday He will proceed overland to California, giving entertainments at the several inland towns along the route Arriving at San Francisco, he will start for the East to secure an engagement

J L McCarthy, traveling correspondent of the Pacific Rural Press, departed on the Oriflamme last evening for San Francisco He has been on a corresponding tour through the Wallamet valley, since his arrival in the State, and has written several interesting letters concerning the resources of this country

Mr M D Merrick, who was sent as a delegate by the Champions of the Red Cross of this State and Washington Territory, to confer with the Executive Committee of the Grand Encampment of California, and from them obtain the necessary authority to institute an Encampment in this State, took his departure last evening on the Oriflamme.

Mr Archibald Blair, formerly one of the principal surveyors on the Oregon and California Railroad, Chief Engineer for the Wallamet Bridge Company and recently employed in making preliminary surveys for the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad, in Eastern Oregon, took his departure last evening on the Oriflamme for San Francisco Mr Blair contemplates returning to this city next spring, on the resumption of operations on the last mentioned line of road

A grand matinee performance will be given this afternoon at the theater

Wilson's Circus will perform at Marysville, California, next Monday evening

A very flattering audience was present last evening at the theater on the occasion of Mr Waldron's benefit The touching drama of "East Lynne" was rendered expressly for the occasion The cast was very judiciously distributed and well calculated to call out the strength of the company Mrs Waldron assumed the character of Lady Isabella, and Madam Vine The beneficiary outdid herself in rendering the part allotted her She assumed the part of the jealous wife and the misguided mistress in a very touching manner, which brought tears to the eyes of many in the audience The last, dying scene was peculiarly affecting The benefit was a fitting and substantial testimonial of the esteem in which Mrs Waldron is held in this community

The Key to Health

It is the one great thing in the world to lose the blessings of health but when lost it is not easy to regain it The popular idea of fifty years ago that a tremendous scouring of the bowels was an essential element of cure in almost all diseases, has fortunately for mankind been pretty effectually exploded, The introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters nearly a quarter of a century ago may be said to have given the coup de grace to drastic purgation The world has learned from the beneficial effects produced by that admirable preparation, that one medicine may embrace the three properties of a tonic a laxative and an alterative that the three curative processes of invigoration purification and regulation may be comprised at the same time by the operation of a single agreeable remedy To no other one philosophical reasons for the remarkable impetus that all into the Bitters is a sign in the circulation of debilitated and enfeebled system This pure combination of vegetable juices not only strengthens the stomach stimulates the appetite and increases the impart is tone and vigor to the secretary organs—the the skin the liver and the kidneys—but it the blood has need to tone it it was try to nourish the body properly enriches and vitalizes that raw material of all the solid portions of the frame At this period of the year when intermittent fevers billious disorders stomach complaints and dysenteric and diarrhetic ailments are always more or less rife, occasional doses of the Bitters will be found the best safeguard against the atmospheric conditions which generate them An accession of general vigor is necessary to enable the system to resist the morbid influence of the malarious vapors which rise from the earth at this season and of all the known invigorants Hostetter's Bitters is the safest and the most potent

PLANTATION BITTERS!
S. T.--1860--X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

THE UNVAILING OF THE STATUE OF SIR WALTER SCOTT.

[From the N Y Times of Nov. 3.]

The memorable statue of Sir Walter Scott, presented to this city by the Scottish residents, and erected at the Mall in Central Park, was unvailed yesterday afternoon in the presence of more than 5,000 spectators In the Casino, a short distance off, were Andrew H Green, the City Controller, and Vice President of the Department of Public Parks, William Cullen Bryant, with a sprig of heather in the breast of his overcoat, and the Committee of Arrangements, consisting of Richard Irvin, Chairman, William Wood and William E Paton, Vice Chairmen Robert Gordon, James Moir, John S Kennedy, Bryce Gray, John Paton Walter Watson James Fraser, Robert Mackie, Robert Dinwiddie, Alexander Knox, A M Stewart, Joseph Laing, and the Secretary, James Brand These gentlemen were waiting for the coming of a battalion of Highlanders of the Seventy-ninth Regiment, National Guard, and the Caledonian Club, to escort them to the statue At 2 o'clock a band of music near the inclosure played the following pieces, under the direction of H B Dodworth

March introductory
1. Overture—"Waverly" . . . . Berlioz
2. Waltz—"Artist's Life" . . . . Strauss
3. Opera selection—"La Muette di Portici" . . Auber
4. Quadrille—"Caledonian" . . . . Jullien

At 3 o'clock the Committee of Arrangements, with Messrs. William Cullen Bryant, and Richard Irvin at their head, preceded by the Highlanders in their picturesque national costume, and the Caledonian Club, accompanied by the bands, marched in procession from the Casino to the platform erected for the occasion in front of the statue. The President of the Brooklyn Parks Commission, Mr. James S. T. Stranahan, and the Brooklyn Parks Controller, Mr. John N. Taylor, sat in the reserved seats within the inclosure. On the arrival of the Committee the band played Sir H. Bishop's overture to Guy Mannering, and then the presentation address was made by Mr. Irvin as follows:

MR. IRVIN'S ADDRESS.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: When the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Sir Walter Scott drew near, Scotsmen of this city determined to signalize the auspicious day by the erection, in this Park, with permission of its authorities, of some becoming and enduring memorial of their great countryman. In pursuance of this resolve, on the 15th of August, 1871, the centennial of Sir Walter's birth, the corner-stone of this monument was laid with appropriate ceremonies and presented to and accepted by the city through its representative, his Honor the Mayor. We are now assembled to complete this interesting enterprise. The effigy is the work of John Steell, the celebrated sculptor of Edinburgh, a gentleman whose reputation as an artist is equaled only by his personal worth, the charm of his manners, and the beauty of his character. In his hands the work has been truly a labor of love. Inspired by a kindred genius, and by loving admiration of the grand subject he had to portray, he labored at it with a devotedness and enthusiasm worthy of the highest commendation. The fame of Steell has been long established in Europe. The work before us, I trust, will extend it to millions on this continent, and attract toward him the consideration and patronage which his admirable abilities deserve. The pedestal was furnished by McDonald, Field & Co., of Aberdeen, and is truly a beautiful performance. These esteemed gentlemen have expended their fine taste and highest skill on this important portion of the work. The committee were singularly fortunate in obtaining the assistance of Mr. David Duncan, of the Crown Office, Edinburgh. His entirely gratuitous services were of incalculable value. Moved only by his love of art and veneration for the memory of his country's great poet and novelist, he voluntarily took upon himself the conduct of all the details connected with the procuring of statue and pedestal, disbursing our funds, and watching over the whole work, from its commencement to its safe embarkation for the shores of America. In all he manifested accurate taste, sound judgment, strict economy and an earnestness of purpose, showing that his whole heart was in the work and his eminent abilities devoted to its successful performance. I wish that esteemed and accomplished gentleman were with us to-day, to witness the completion of an enterprise in which he has borne so useful and disinterested a part. He would be welcomed with all the friendship and warm-hearted kindness he has manifested toward the Committee. To Messrs. Henderson Brothers, the esteemed owners of the Anchor line of steamers, we are deeply indebted. They conveyed the whole of our ponderous shipment across the Atlantic without any expense to us, thus demonstrating that enlightened generosity and interest in the elegances and adornments of life are quite in harmony with the highest degree of commercial sagacity and enterprise. Our Collector and all the Custom House authorities, under orders from the Secretary of the Treasury, gave free access to our interesting importation. All, down to the humblest laborer, seemed covetous of the privilege of doing something to facilitate our operations. To all who have been so kind and liberal the Committee desire me to express their warmest acknowledgements. And what shall I say of the Commissioners of the Park, whose co-operation, as it was indispensable to our success, has been most liberal and judicious? See what a beautiful and appropriate site they have given us; what an illustrious neighborhood! Scott himself could have claimed no higher companionship than that of the incomparable Shakspeare, who alone, perhaps, was his superior in mental power and originality, while the effigy of Shakspeare itself seems to reflect a brighter radiance since the advent of his admirable successor. Separated by 200 years of time, they are now joint inheritors of an undying renown. Of the genius and writings of Scott it is fortunately not for me to speak. On these great topics you are about to hear from our loved and distinguished fellow-citizen, William Cullen Bryant, a kindred genius and worthy brother to the poet of the Scottish lakes and streams. The personal character of Scott is a most charming subject for contemplation. A truer, braver, more honest and conscientious man has seldom adorned our common humanity. In the words of Burns, "his eye, even bent on empty space, beamed keen with honor." As long as exalted and well directed genius is admired; so long as truth, probity, elevation of purpose, noble unselfishness and simplicity are valued, the fame of Sir Walter Scott will speak with resistless power to the human heart. I have now the honor, in behalf of the subscribers, to present this finished monument to the City of New York, through the Commissioners of the Park, and respectfully commend it to their respect and protection.

THE UNVAILING.

At the close of the presentation address, Mr. Wm. Wood said.

Mr President, Ladies and Gentlemen The high privilege of unvailing the statue of Sir Walter Scott, has been allotted to me. On the 15th August, 1871, when the foundation of the pedestal of the statue was laid in this Park, I had the honor of giving fully my views of the life and character of my illustrious countrymen, therefore I will not now hinder the audience, by any remarks of my own, from listening to the silver voice of William Cullen Bryant, the greatest poet and ripest scholar of America, but shall only quote, "with a difference," from words which, in my opinion, most fittingly apply to Sir Walter Scott, and Sir Walter Scott's statue:

"Sweetest Shakspeare, fancy's child,"

"As he lived peerless,
So his dead likeness, I do well believe,
Excels whatever yet you looked upon,
Or hand of man hath done,
But here it is—prepare
To see the life as lively mocked as ever
Still sleep mocked death, behold, and say 'tis well"

As soon as the word "well" had been uttered by the speaker the cloth was suddenly removed from the statue and it stood revealed to the eyes of the assembled multitude bathed in the golden light of the declining sun, toward which it was turned. A shout of applause escaped from the lips of every one present, and as it died a way, half a dozen Highlanders marched slowly around the statue and played a pibroch with their bagpipes. The statue is bronze, of colossal size, and represents Scott seated on a rock, with a book and a pen in hand. It is eight feet in height, a replica of the original marble, which stands in Princess street, Edinburgh, and which has already been fully described The pedestal, of Peterhead granite, is a remarkably fine piece of work, and about seven feet high.

RECEPTION OF THE STATUE.

Mr A H Green, on receiving the statue, made the following address

SPEECH OF ANDREW H. GREEN.

In the absence of the respected President of the Park Board and of my associate Commissioners, it is my agreeable duty to represent them in the reception and acceptance of the admirable work of art which, by your act, now passes from the hands of those who have created and placed it here, to the public care and guardianship From this time this monument becomes the public property, and to those who are charged with the keeping of the grounds the people will look for its proper protection and preservation In accepting it, on behalf of the City and of the Park authorities, I join, sir, with you in the most ample recognition of our obligations to those to whom you have so kindly alluded as the chief agents of its origination and transposition to this place, which it is to embellish, and where it is to stand, at once an ornament and an example In the disposition of works of this monumental character, always difficult in public grounds, it is the intention of the Park Commissioners so to arrange them that the visitor, whether citizen or stranger, as he proceeds along this spacious Mall, shall on either side recognize enduring memorials of the worthiest and best of all climes and nationalities At the head of one of these columns, by the munificence of your associates, stands first the representation of the man who did so much to illustrate the land of his birth and to celebrate the people of whom he was, and the annals of whose glories and sterling virtues he has introduced to successive generations. We receive this tribute of the affection of his own people most welcomely. We feel that he is of us, as well as of you. Attended by his countrymen in civic and characteristic military garb, at the sound of the pibroch from native pipes he takes his place upon the enduring granite of Aberdeen at the head of a line of worthies and noble men, and scenes of natural beauty of which his cultured taste would have never tired, and so long as these elms invite the breezes that play among their branches, so long shall we greet with hospitable welcome the accession to our country of the people of Walter Scott. They have brought to us, and will still bring to us, those national traits of Scotsmen—perseverence, industry, and uprightness—that have done so much in the development of this great and liberal, because cosmopolitan, city.

After an overture had been played by the band, Mr. William Cullen Bryant addressed the meeting as follows.

MR. BRYANT'S ADDRESS.

The Scottish residents of this city, whose public spirit and reverence for genius have moved them to present to the people of New York the statue of their countryman which has just now been unvailed to the public gaze, have honored me with a request that I should so far take part in these ceremonies as to speak a few words concerning the great poet and novelist, of whose renown they are so justly proud. As I look round on this assembly I perceive few persons of my own age—few who can remember, as I can, the rising and setting of this brilliant luminary of modern literature. I well recollect the time when Scott, then thirty-four years of age, gave to the world his Lay of the Last Minstrel, the first of his works which awakened the enthusiastic admiration that afterward attended all he wrote. In that poem the spirit of the old Scottish ballads—the most beautiful of their class—lived again. In it we had all their fire, the rapid narrative, their unlabored graces, their pathos, animating a story to which he had given a certain epic breadth and unity. We read with scarcely less delight his poem of Marmion, and soon afterward the youths and maidens of our country hung with rapture over the pages of his Lady of the Lake. I need not enumerate his other poems, but this I will say of them all, that no other metrical narratives in our language seem to me to possess an equal power of enchaining the attention of the reader, and carrying him on from incident to incident with such entire freedom from weariness. These works, printed in cheap editions, were dispersed all over our country; they found their way to almost every fireside, and their popularity raised up both here and in Great Britain a multitude of imitators now forgotten. This power over the mind of the reader was soon to be exemplified in a more remarkable manner, and when, at the age of forty-three, Scott gave to the world, without any indication of its authorship, his romance of Waverly, all perceived that a new era in the literature of fiction had begun. "Here," they said, "is a genius of a new order. What wealth of materials, what free mastery in molding them into shape, what invention, humor, pathos, vivid portraiture of character—nothing overcharged or exaggerated, yet all distinct, spirited and life-like! Are we not," they asked, "to have other works by the same hand?" The desire thus expressed was soon gratified. The expected romances came forth with a rapidity which amazed their readers. Some, it is true, ascribed them to Scott, as the only man who could write them. "It cannot be," said others; "Scott is occupied with writing histories and poems and editing work after work, which require great labor and research; he has no time for writing romances like these." So he went on, throwing off these remarkable works as if the writing of them had been but a pastime, and fairly bombarding the world with romances from his mysterious covert It was like what in the neighborhood of this city we see on a fine evening of the 4th of July, when rocket after rocket rise from the distant horizon and bursts in the air, throwing off to right and left jets of flame and fire balls of every brilliant hue, yet whose are the hands that launch them we know not. So we read and wondered and lost ourselves in conjectures as to the author who ministered to our delight, and when at length, at a public dinner in the year 1827, Scott avowed himself to be the sole author of the Waverly Novels, the interest which we felt at this disclosure was hardly less than that with which we heard of the issue of the great battle of Waterloo. I have seen a design by some artist in which Scott is shown surrounded by the personages whom, in his poems and romances, he called into being. They formed a vast crowd, face beyond face, each with its characteristic expression—a multitude so great that it reminded me of the throng—the cloud, I may call it—of cherubim, which, in certain pictures on the walls of European churches, surround the Virgin Mother. For forty years has Scott lain in his grave, and now his countrymen place in this Park an image of the noble brow, so fortunately copied by the artist, beneath which the personages of his imagination grew into being Shall we say grew, as if they sprang up spontaneously in his mind, like plants from a fruitful soil, while his fingers guided the pen that noted down their words and recorded their acts? Or should we imagine the faculties of his mind to have busied themselves at his bidding in the chambers of that active brain, and gradually to have molded the characters of his wonderful fictions to their perfect form? At all events, let us say that He who breathed the breath of life into the frame of which a copy is before us, imparted with that breath a portion of His own creative power. And now as the statue of Scott is set up in this beautiful Park, which, a few years since, possessed no human associations, historical or poetic, connected with its shades, its lawns, its rocks and its waters, these grounds become peopled with new memories Henceforth the silent earth at this spot will be eloquent of old traditions, the airs that stir the branches of the trees will whisper of feats of chivalry to the visitor. All that vast crowd of ideal personages created by the imagination of Scott will enter with his sculptured effigy, and remain—Fergus and Flora McIvor, Meg Merrilies and Dirck Hatteraick, the Antiquary and his sister, and Edie Ochiltree, Rob Roy and Helen Macgregor, and Bailie Jarvie and Dandie Dinmont, and Diana Vernon and Old Mortality—but the night would be upon us before I could go through the muster-roll of this great army They will pass in endless procession around the statue of him in whose prolific brain they had their birth, until the language which we speak shall perish, and the spot on which we stand shall be again a woodland wilderness.

The ceremony was brought to a close by the three bands playing "God Save the Queen" and "Hail Columbia," after which the vast audience slowly dispersed. In the evening the committee gave a Scott Monument dinner at Delmonico's.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

FRIDAY EVENING, Nov. 15, 1872.

Specie Payments.

The question of specie payments by the Government is one which has for some time past been quite extensively discussed by commercial writers and political speakers. But we doubt if any considerable number of our ablest financiers have really thought such a result possible, or at all practicable, under the present circumstances. The New York Mercantile Journal has some suggestions upon this point which are worthy of careful consideration by every student of the financial history of our country That journal takes the ground that the law making gold a legal tender ought to be at once abolished, and claims that there is a rapidly increasing evidence on every hand that the day cannot be much longer delayed when the fact will be generally acknowledged that gold is really nothing more nor less than merchandise, and has no real merit as money; that it is not of fixed value, but is constantly changing; that its market value is like a ship floating without anchor, moved by the wind and tide, frequently damaging the other craft with which it comes in contact The law making gold a legal tender ought to be repealed, leaving such speculators as may choose free to buy and sell it for future delivery, the same as they now gamble in wheat, pork, cotton, etc., etc.

"In the last ten years our history has proved that trade can be prosperous, and exchanges of products satisfactorily made, with a currency not redeemable in specie; whereas the forty years previous, with paper money purporting to be redeemable in specie, the frequent panics, revulsions, bankruptcy and ruin that occurred gave satisfactory proof of the viciousness of the system, while our present state of prosperity is convincing evidence of sanitary progress in financial science

"No device for deluding a trading people into bankruptcy can ever be more effectual than the issue of promises to pay in coin, when the very fact that they are issued is because credit is needed A merchant that would buy goods and give his notes for them, payable on demand, and sell the goods on time, could be made bankrupt any day The issuer of currency payable on demand in coin in exchange for business notes on time, is always in that unsafe condition—the slightest breath of distrust ruins him at once

"If paper money is to be used at all, it should have a real basis, which cannot be coin, because, if sufficient coin were kept, it would be unprofitable, but a free banking law that provided that the bills must be secured by interest bearing bonds, which required that the currency issued should be redeemable in those bonds or in lawful money, at the option of the bank, would give the nation a medium of exchange elastic and safe."

Distillery Statistics.

The official statement of the Internal Revenue Bureau, made on the 1st instant, shows that during the month of October there was an increase in the production in distilleries of 40,604 gallons daily. On the 1st of October there were in operation in the United States 199 distilleries, with a daily producing capacity of 187,8[illegible] gallons, and on the first of this month the number of distilleries reported is 236, with a capacity of 228,470 gallons.

U S Land Statistics.

The report of the Land Commissioner for the last fiscal year shows that the number of acres sold for cash was 1,370,[illegible] military bounty land warrant claims 380,460 acres; Homestead act, 4,671,332 acres, Agricultural College scrip, 693,613 acres, certified to railroads, 3,554,887 acres, wagon roads, 465,347 acres; scrip to States, 714,255 acres, and Sioux Indian scrip tax, 6,700 acres—total, 11,864,975 acres. Cash receipts, $3,218,100. Number of acres surveyed during the year, 29,459,930; yet unsurveyed in States and Territories, 1,251,528,0[illegible]0 acres. During the year the number of miles of land grant railroads constructed was 1,750, a greater number than in any previous year.

Miscellaneous.

The earnings of 21 railways in the Atlantic States for the first nine months of the year show substantial gains in every instance except two The total earnings are $92,346,800, a gain of over $9,000,000 as compared with the same time in 1871 The only lines showing decreased earnings are the Chicago and Alton, $138,900, and Illinois Central, $487,000

The Webb steamship line, which has been running for the past year between San Francisco, Honolulu, Auckland and Sydney, has recently been organized under the laws of New York, with four Directors in New York, and three in San Francisco. The names are as follows W H Webb (President), Theodore P Ward, George P. Lowery and Parker Handy, New York, Lloyd Tevis, D O Mills and S F Butterworth, San Francisco The Company now have the Ajax, Nevada and Nebraska, and will soon have the Dakota and Santiago de Cuba on the route between San Francisco and Auckland.

Sheep and Lamb skins, imported with the wool on are still liable to duty, in addition to the duty on the wool, at the rate of ten per centum, ad valorem, as they are specially excluded from the provision in section 6 of the Act of June 6, 1872, which exempts them from the payment of duty

The bankers of the oil regions have held two meetings relative to the plans recently adopted by the convention of producers to control the market for crude oil. The plan consists of the formation of an agency with a capital stock of $1,000,000, through which the entire production is to be bought and sold, with ample storage, restraining production when necessary

The total amount coined this year at the San Francisco Mint is $1 700 less than last year The great demand for fine gold for shipment has curtailed operations at the Mint

Home Finances.

During the day we have made inquiries in regard to the condition of local money matters, and while we are unable to report any important change for the better yet we find business men generally hopeful as to the future as could be expected under the circumstances and we incline now to the belief that our financial condition is rather brighter than at the beginning of the week By a careful management of the legitimate business of the country, and an abstinence from wild uncertain speculation, we have confidence that dealers and consumers, as well as producers, will pull through the crisis without any marked disaster or extended calamity We would certainly be wrong as a journalist not to urge this cautious policy upon our people, and the people will suffer if it be not heeded.

Home Produce Market

Wheat is unchanged to-day, with a sufficient freedom to supply the demand Purchases in the interior have apparently slackened in the last few days, owing to the severe weather and the uncertain condition of the market, combined with a disposition on the part of farmers to hold off for a better rate

Oats are limited in supply, with some increase in the demand We learn that offers are made at $1 45 ⅌ cental for best

Flour is active at the rates last given, with a fair demand both for local and export trade

Feed is ruling at the rates given heretofore, with a tendency to firmness in the market, which may result in an advance

Hay has not been in large receipts for a day or two past, and figures are given at at cut $12 for wild, and $18 @20 for good timothy.

Barley and Rye, none offering

Potatoes, dull, with few transactions Dealers pay about 70@75c ⅌ 100 lbs.

Onions, falling off in receipts, but few coming to hand during the week past Figures unchanged

Dairy Products, well up to our last quotations and rather scarcer Eggs, slightly advanced, 37½c per doz for fresh being our quotations

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,
623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.
DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him
The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.
Horrible Diseases.
How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.
Seminal Weakness.
Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the faces, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.
MARRIED MEN.
Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.
DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.
CURED AT HOME.
Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.
All communications strictly confidential.
Caution to the Unfortunate.
Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary—some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy too work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people, by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.
REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.
Consultations FREE.
Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian
